 - “Stirred up, rise up, go up, bring up, and build up” –Hag. 1 and Ezra 1
 - “A threefold cord is not quickly broken”—Eccl. 4:12.
- The perfecting of the key brothers.
- The care of many children in a proper church life and to have each other as companions.
- There is the need for an adequate meeting hall in Turin to facilitate the saints meeting together every Lord’s day and to take care of the children.
- The need for the migration of full-timers to bridge the language gaps.
- The need for the migration of solid and more mature saints.
- The need for continuous visitations for the shepherding of new and dormant saints.
